Every year, study plans can be filled in from October till July. Students can make amendments to their study plan (even several times). The Study Plan must be filled in before registering for the exams.

Once the degree application has been submitted on Uniweb, the study plan can NOT be modified.

Further details on the Study Plan are available on the following guide.

A LITTLE TIP FOR YOU:

Choose your free-choice credits exams following your interests and the field you want to deepen in your final thesis.

Final thesis / project (24 credits)

In order to finish your MA, you must work on your final project and write a thesis on it.

You must contact one of your lecturers and start working on a topic you are interested in.

It would be good to choose a thesis project that is coherent with your interests and that focuses on the areas in which you would like to continue your studies in the future.

Stage/Internship – 3 credits

You must earn 3 credits:

- by doing an internship
- by attending seminars offered in our Department
Seminari di Anglistica e Americanistica - A.A. 2023/24
Seminari di pragmatica
Seminari di Linguistica
- or by studying abroad (min. 1 semester)

More helpful information:

Keep in mind that the courses you are interested in may be offered only in the first or only in the second semester.

Therefore, organise your study plan accordingly.

IMPORTANT

- In order to sign up for and take an exam you must insert the relevant course in your study plan!
- We suggest you fill your study plan by December, since the Winter exam session starts in late January.
- Always check Uniweb to see your “appelli” (exam dates)
