

Contemporary/modern-day/neo slavery + racism

Case study : Thailand
by พิชญากัศ เลียงสมบัติ

From global to national estimates

The 10 countries with the highest prevalence of modern slavery are:

1. North Korea
2. Eritrea
3. Mauritania
4. Saudi Arabia
5. Türkiye
6. Tajikistan
7. United Arab Emirates
8. Russia
9. Afghanistan
10. Kuwait

These 10 countries share some political, social, and economic characteristics, including limited protections for civil liberties and human rights.

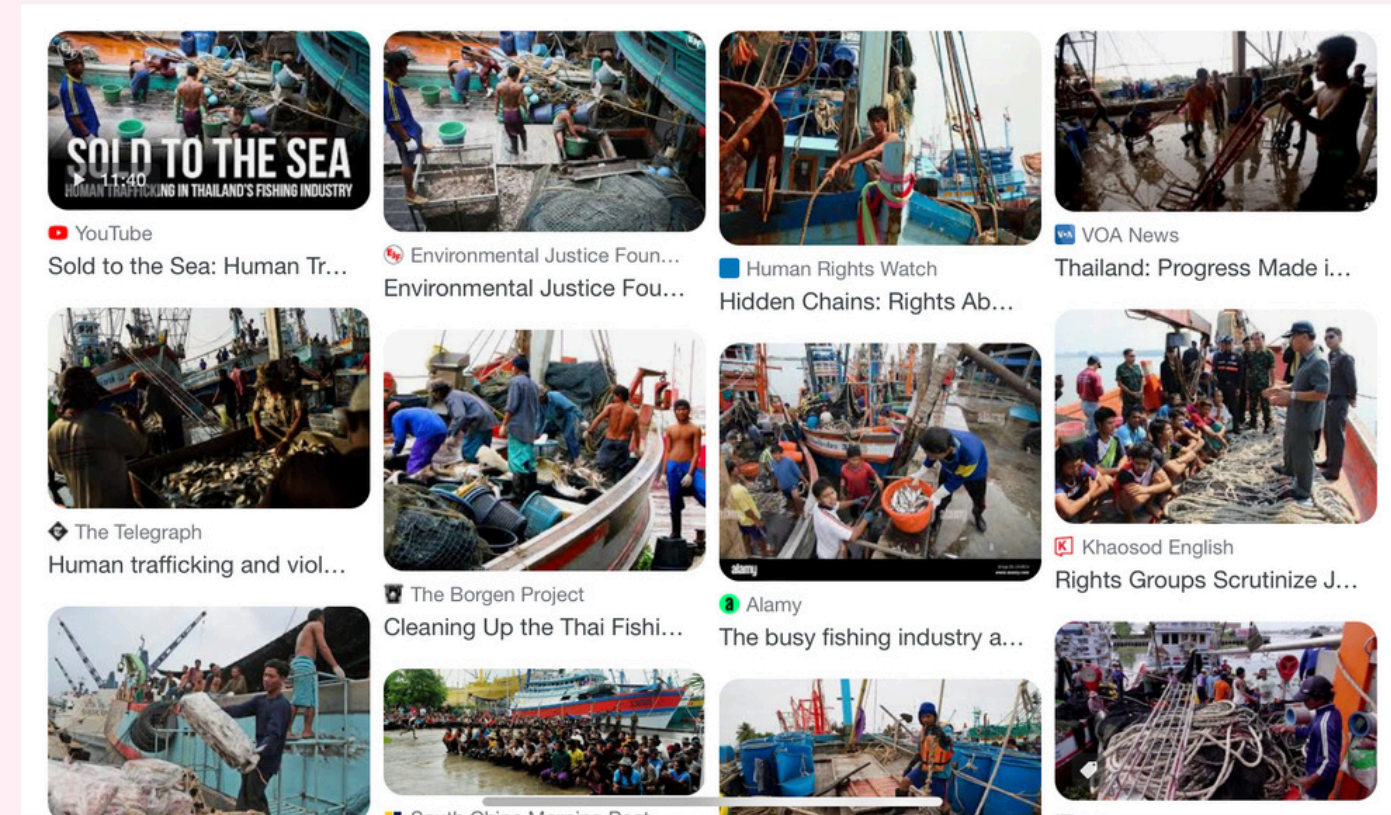

slavery into today's forms

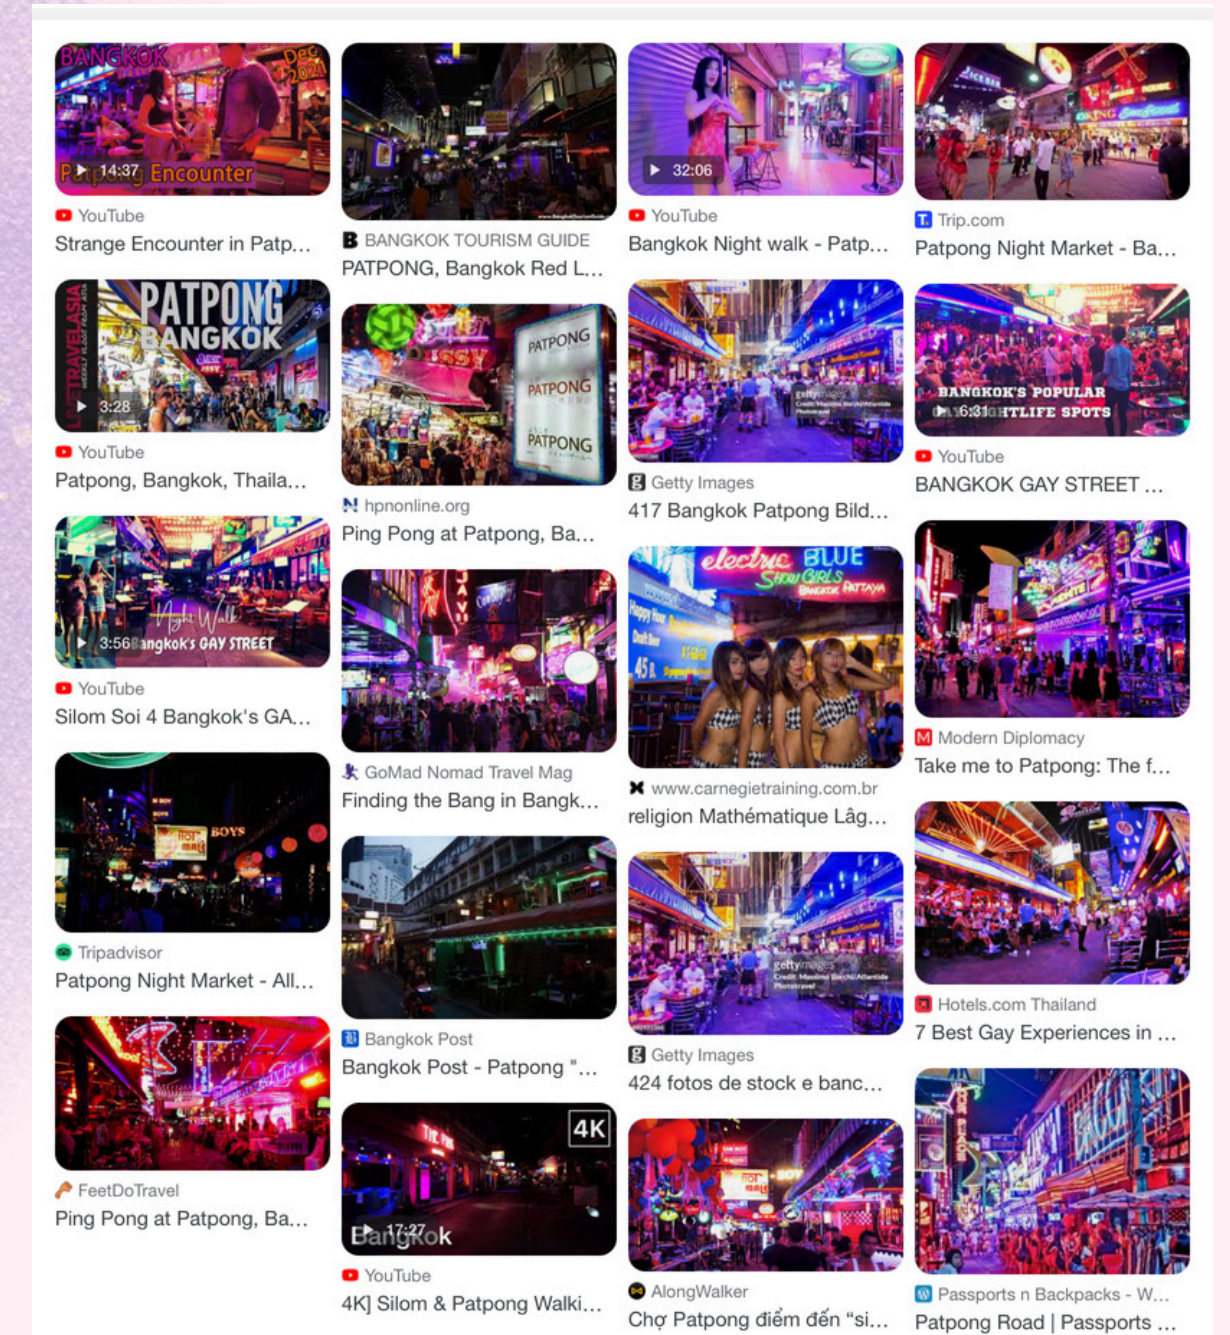

- legal ownership - replaced by illegal control, often stemming from poverty and societal structures.
 - This manifests in various industries like mining, farming, and factories, with vulnerable communities being particularly affected.
 - The 2023 Global Slavery Index estimates that on any given day in 2021, there were 401,000 people living in modern slavery in Thailand. This equates to a prevalence of 5.7 people in modern slavery for every thousand people in the country.
 - Thailand has the 14th highest prevalence out of 27 countries in the Asia Pacific region, and ranks 79 out of 160 countries globally.

Forced labour exploitation

Forced labor and other rights abuses are widespread in Thailand's fishing fleets despite government commitments to comprehensive reforms : watch video click here

Forced commercial sexual exploitation of adults and children

Brothel of the world

The whitest white colorism, class, privilege, prejudice, discrimination...you name it

- racial identity and the internalized racism that affects individuals of all communities
- the damaging effects of internalized white supremacy and the pressure to conform to Eurocentric standards of appearance and behavior
- unrealistic portrayals and prejudiced representations
- societal expectations - those who do not fit these standards feeling inadequate
- societal standards of beauty and the damaging effects
- "slippery light" : a sense of racial superiority based on appearance

The whitest...everything societal ideals of beauty and privilege
