LITERATURE 2 AND B2: WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

- Literature 2 – continuation of one of the 9 credits literatures you took in your first year.
- Literature B2 – a 6 credits literature course of your choosing, not linked to the literatures of your first year.

Please note that your Literature 2 and your Literature B2 cannot be the same (i.e. you cannot do both a Medieval English Literature 2 exam and a Medieval English Literature B2 exam) since the programmes are the same.

And you are done!

A LITTLE TIP FOR YOU:

Choose your free-choice credits exams following your interests and the field you want to deepen in your final thesis.

More helpful information:

- Keep in mind that the courses you are interested in may be offered only in the first or only in the second semester. Therefore, organise your study plan accordingly.
- The study plan remains editable throughout the year – you can edit it as many times as you like.
 - It will stop being editable in a short time window in September, to allow the system to focus on the last exams of the Academic Year and the Graduations happening in Fall.
 - Your study plan will stop being editable once you send in your Graduation request.

IMPORTANT

- In order to sign up for and take an exam you must insert the relevant course in your study plan!
- We suggest you fill your study plan by December, since the Winter exam session starts in late January.
- Always check Uniweb to see your “appelli” (exam dates)
