

REGULATION

To the students of the Master's Degree Course in

European and American Languages and Literatures

Participation in cumulative cultural events such as congresses, conferences, study days, cycles of lectures, etc. is recognised as valid for the acquisition of 3 CFU of in-depth linguistic and communicative study (Italian and/or foreign languages), subject to the following conditions

- 1. attendance of 36 hours of different seminars;
- 2. attendance of 22 hours of a single seminar and submission of a paper (in the manner determined by the event organisers).

The hours of attendance and the approval of the thesis, if any, require endorsement by the organisers of the individual seminars, who will each provide according to the rules of the individual seminar.

ACTIVITIES: In order to document his/her activity, for each lecture, cycle or conference session (half days), etc., the student must record the title, venue, date and duration in hours of the event each time and have it signed by the lecturer organising the event.

REGISTRATION of the 3 CFUs on UNIWEB: According to the timetable and procedures indicated on the pages of the lecturer(s) in charge:

LLA: Prof. Marco Rispoli
