STUDIES

The student is obliged to choose and set up the study plan from the FoE Course Catalogue 2026/2027 and the UHK Course Catalogue 2026/2027 for the respective semester

(only these courses are taught in English, some in French, German or Russian).

Students can select whole modules and combine them with specific courses, or they can create their study plan by selecting different courses from modules, taking into account of the student's educational background and field of study.

Note, that the student is enrolled in the Faculty of Education, so at least 75% of the courses must be selected from the Faculty of Education's offer.

The minimum number of credits is 20, while the maximum is 30.*

we are willing to accept other limits for total number of credits, if demanded by sending institution*

ACCOMMODATION

Accommodation in the UHK University Halls of Residence Palachova is provided only upon the request.

The student must tick this box in the Student Application and Accommodation form and send it in on time.

The student will be accommodated in a triple room (in exceptional cases in a double room) in a two-room apartment with shared facilities (bathroom, toilet, kitchen).

There are no single rooms available!

The rent for the room varies between 127 and 140 CZK per night, i.e. between 3800 and 4200 CZK (= 185-205 USD) per month+ refundable deposit of 2000 CZK (=100 USD).

We do not provide any other accommodation.

If the student prefers private accommodation, we can provide some useful links, but it is the student's responsibility to arrange it.

More information is to be found in the attached file.

REGISTRATION TO THE IS/STAG STUDY PLATFORM AT UHK

After student is accepted, he/she is asked to do registration at the study platform of the UHK called IS/STAG. Students who already did OLA via EWP, have been registered automatically in the IS/STAG platform, and will be only asked to complete missing information.

BUDDY/ARTEMIS

All incoming students have the opportunity to "order" a buddy student to look after them and help them with their first steps, such as picking them up from the airport/railway station or coach station, checking into the residence, enrolment.

Once accepted, students will receive a link to register on the ESN buddy web platform, called ARTEMIS.

VISA

A student from some Erasmus+ programme and partner countries must apply for a visa in order to be allowed to stay in the Czech Republic as an exchange student.

It must be a long-term visa for study purposes.

More information on how to apply and what documents are required can be found on the website: <https://www.uhk.cz/en/faculty-of-education/exchanges/documents-and-forms>

INSURANCE

The student is obliged to take out Comprehensive Health Insurance for Foreigners, valid for the entry into the CZ. The minimum coverage must be 400 000 EUR per insured event without any co-insurance or deductible.

The student can take it out in with any insurance company operating in the Czech Republic! (e.g. PVZP, Slavia, UNIQA, etc.).

We recommend: PVZP: <https://cizinci.pvzp.cz/> or Slavia insurance company: <https://cizinci.slavia-pojistovna.cz/>
