

Pedagogical University of Krakow - PL KRAKOW05

The Pedagogical University of Krakow (PL KRAKOW05) operates in a two-semester system (15 weeks each). The first/winter semester starts at the beginning of October, and the second/summer semester starts around the middle of February. Our courses run for the entire academic year, usually with exams at the end of each semester. The exam sessions preceded with a week of preparation takes place in January and June.

Please be advised, that you can be accepted ONLY for one semester (without the possibility of prolonging your stay).

The deadlines for your application are:

May, 31th for the first/winter semester

November, 30th for the second/summer semester

However, in case you need accommodation, May, 31th the deadline for both semesters.

Once the Pedagogical University of Krakow has received an official nomination from a Partner University, prospective Erasmus student will receive an e-mail with application instructions.
