Language Requirements

It is the responsibility of the sending institution, in agreement with our institution, to provide support to its nominated candidates so that they have the language skills at the start of the study or teaching period:

Type of mobility	Subject area	Language(s) of instruction	Language of instruction level *
Student Mobility for Studies	Any	Spanish	The minimum level required is B1 (according to the CEFR), but each faculty/center has specific requirements. For Master and PhD programs, it is highly recommended to have a C1 level in Spanish, as we cannot guarantee any course or research in other languages. Detailed information and updates: https://www.ucm.es/english/language-requirements
Staff Mobility for Teaching	Any	Spanish	Minimum recommended level: B2

* Level according to Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR): <http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/resources/european-language-levels-cefr>

Free Spanish Course

Incoming mobility students who wish to improve their level of Spanish during their stay at the UCM can enroll in one of the two free courses offered by the Centro Complutense para la Enseñanza del Español \(CCEE\) at the beginning of each semester. Contact email: erasmusfqucm@ucm.es

Admission requirements

- Having completed the online application as an Erasmus student at the UCM during the current academic year, at the International Relations
- The Spanish course must be requested in the application form.
- Only accepted mobility students who are going to study at the Complutense University during the current academic year and have a level lower than C1 can enrol
- Students who have applied for the course must take a compulsory level test.
- Students with a C1 or C2 level can opt for other courses offered by the CCEE, with special prices for Erasmus students. For more information, please click here.

At the end of the course, students will receive a diploma certifying their attendance and the number of hours they have studied at the Spanish level according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

- This course and the accreditation document do not allow to obtain ECTS credits.
- In order to receive the certificate, it is necessary to have attended 80% of the classes.
- The certificate will be sent by post at the end of the course.

Important Information

1. The number of students you send must not exceed the number of students specified in this agreement. In particular, we do not accept the mechanism whereby shorter periods of stay allow you to send more students, i.e. if you exchange 1 student for 10 months, you may not freely send 2 students for 5 months, even if their stay covers different semesters. Please consider this when choosing your students.
2. The UCM has facilities for students with learning or physical disabilities. Disabled students have access to the Office for the Integration of People with Disabilities (IRO), which provides material, technical and social assistance. Please contact the IRO to ensure adequate information and assistance.

3. Staff Mobility for Training and for Teaching: Complutense University welcomes applications from foreign Staff for a training/teaching period; however, it is at the discretion of the department concerned whether to accept a staff visitor. Applications must be sent to rinter@ucm.es at least two months prior to the desired training/teaching period. The training/teaching period cannot be scheduled during summer (i.e. July-August) in the Academic year.

Academic Information

Students at Master level (2nd cycle) must have completed 240 ECTS credits. However, some Masters students with only 180 ECTS credits may be admitted to Masters level courses if their background is sound and approved by the Masters coordinator. Students must submit the following documents to the International Relations Office of the relevant Faculty/School Curriculum Vitae, Transcript of Records and Letter of Motivation. The student's Learning Agreement must be approved by the Masters Coordinator.

Admission to a specific course is subject to the exchange student's satisfactory qualifications for the chosen field of study and/or course level and availability.

PhD students must send a Master's certificate to the International Relations Office of the relevant Faculty/School. PhD students will only receive ECTS credits if they take courses at the host institution. Therefore, they will not receive ECTS credits from the host institution for any PhD-related research they undertake. The home institution is responsible for awarding doctoral students ECTS credits for research undertaken at the host institution.

It is not possible for students to submit their final MA/PhD thesis to the host institution. Final theses must be assessed by the home institution.

ECTS

Misceallaneous

We can only accept incoming students for the study areas specified in the bilateral agreements between Universities.

The ECTS Student Application includes:

1. Student Registration filled ON LINE once printed
2. Academic Recognition / Learning Agreement (please check with the UCM area coordinator for details on the Curricula)
3. Academic Transcript

These documents, with the original signatures and stamps from the home university have to be sent to us, by post. Its reception in our Erasmus Central Office closes the whole inscription process.

- Students must choose their courses among those offered by the Faculty in our University (exceptionally, they would be allowed to take a maximum of two annual or two semester courses each semester in a different area)
- Due to the overpopulation of our University, we are not able to split semesters, neither to accept extra students.

We can only accept applications from students who have been nominated by their home university with which we have a formal bilateral agreement. We regret we are unable to accept Erasmus free movers.

The exchange students are solely responsible for:

- Obtaining at their own cost passports, visas and other travel documents. Acceptance by the Host Institution of an exchange student does not guarantee that they will obtain a visa or necessary travel documents to enter the host country.
- Meeting all entry requirements of the host country.
- Finding and paying for their own accommodation and living expenses. However, the Host Institution will make all reasonable efforts to provide incoming exchange students with assistance in finding accommodation for the exchange period, provided the Host Institution's application procedures are fulfilled.
- Paying travel expenses to and from the host country and also within the host country.
- Purchasing at their own cost all books, equipment and consumables needed during the exchange period.
- Obtaining at their own cost any additional insurance policies (including health insurance, medical expenses insurance) or vaccinations, if required by the Host Institution, and any other incidental expenses.

The information available through the mentioned web pages is only partially in English.
