

A JOURNEY FROM A BROKEN SCHOOL TO THE WORLDKNOWN UNIVERISTY

Fahmina Naimi
I Development Master Degree Student
04/2020

AFGHANISTAN BEFORE THE DARK AGE

the war continue in the country since decades, but the Taliban came over on 1996-2001

HOW THE SITUATION CHANGED

Afghan women were not wearing Burqa it was imposed on them and it was a foreign culture

OUR CULTURE

AS AN AFGHAN GIRL I FIND MYSELF INVOLVED IN THE WAR

- MY FATHER WAS IN ARMY
- MY MOTHER SUFFERED A LOT

MY PROVINCE WARDAK

- EDUCATION IS CRIME FOR A GIRL
- 2017 RE-OPENED GIRL SCHOOL

MY SCHOOL IN KABUL WAS THE BEST FOR ME (2003)

LIFE OR STRUGGLE

play-ground where children can play

A young girl protesting for justice and human rights

WHAT IS PEACE?

A DREAM

RELEASING A DOVE FROM THE CAGE

FIGHT FOR EACH SINGLE THING

NEW JOURNY: PANJAB UNIVERISTY OF INDIA

FROM TRRDITIONAL, BACKWORD, LOCKED SOCIETY TO CLOSED, BLACK AND WHILTE,CASTE SYSTEM SOCIETY

NEW POLICY: BRINGING YOUTHS IN DECISION MAKING TABLE

Received the title of ambassador of independence

Donated the Chadar with 100s hopes of Afghan women to first lady of Afghanistan

AICS SCHOLARSHIP HOLDERS 2019/2021

WHY LOCAL DEVELOPMENT MASTER'S DEGREE?

- Decentralization
- To know realize the real need of my community
- To work for social welfare
- To work for local communities

YES!

I HAVE BORN IN THE WAR, I BROUGHT UP IN WAR

BUT I NEVER LOST MY HOPE

یاد آن روز گرامی که قفس را بشکافم
بخوانم سر برون آرم از این عزلت و مستانه
من نه آن بید ضعیفم که ز هر باد بلرزم
دخت افغانم و برجاست که دایم به فغانم

I respect the memory of that honorable day, When I break the cage
Head out of it and sing the songs of peace with a loud voice
I am not that weak tree, which moves with any wind
I am an Afghan girl, and it's in my destiny to whine all my life

THANK YOU