Insurance	According to Swiss law the Immigration Office requires proof that you are sufficiently covered for health care and accidents during your stay in Switzerland. EU-citizens and students coming from EFTA-members will need to hand in a copy of their European Health Insurance Card (EHIC). www.unibas.ch/erasmus
Visa	Once you have been accepted as an exchange student in Basel, you will have to prepare to enter and live in Switzerland as a foreigner. EU-citizens and students coming from EFTA-members do not need to apply for visa. They will have to register at the immigration office and get their residency permit once they are in Basel. Non-EU-citizens will need to check the requirements at the Swiss embassy. www.unibas.ch/erasmus

Housing

Is housing guaranteed?	Housing is not guaranteed. There is a wide range of reasonably-priced flats and rooms in Basel.

Scholarship

Student Grant – Scholarship	Following the Swiss referendum „on mass immigration“ in February 2014, the EU suspended negotiations on Switzerland’s full participation in the EU education programme Erasmus+. The Swiss government decided to offer an interim solution of indirect participation in Erasmus+ under SEMP.  A scholarship will be offered. The grant amount will be within the margins of the EU grant and equivalent to the Erasmus grant.
