
INFORMATION LITERACY TRAINING FOR PHD STUDENTS
Academic year 2021/22

DAY 1

From physical to digital library

1.a The services of the Library of Philosophy and the University of Padua Library System

14 December 2021 (9.30-10.30) Sala Seminari

The session is addressed to PhD students in their first year of the doctoral programme and it is a compulsory activity. We will offer a presentation of the Library of Philosophy, of the services of the University of Padua Library System. We will also do some training on bibliographic research strategies and on how to use paper and online resources regarding philosophical studies, ranging from catalogues to bibliographic and full-text databases, from electronic journals, search engines and specialised portals, to reference management tools.

1.b Doing research: electronic resources for philosophy

14 December 2021 (10.30-12.30) Sala Seminari

The session is open to all PhD students

Research strategies and exercises on specialised databases: Philosopher's Index, Poiesis, Leuven, Web of Science, Scopus

1.c Zotero, the citation management tool

14 December 2021 (14.30-16.00) Zoom

A session dedicated to Zotero, a free, easy-to-use tool to collect, organize, cite, and share research sources.

DAY 2

How to publish: academic publishing and open science

2.a Scientific communication and Open Access

15 December 2021 (11-13) Sala Seminari

The session is open to all PhD students

- The peer review system
- Open access
- Editorial contracts and predatory publishing
- Academic social networks
- Italian and European mandates for open access
- University policies for open access

2.b Evaluation of research

15 December 2021 (14.30-15.30) Sala Seminari

The session is open to all PhD students

- Evaluation of journals in the human sciences
- The ANVUR classification of journals

2.c The University's Institutional Archives and Doctoral Theses

15 December 2021 (15.30-16.30) Sala Seminari

The session is open to all PhD students

- Institutional archives
- Padua Research Archive
- Padua @ Research
- Submission of doctoral theses (self-filing flow, embargo)