

INFORMATION LITERACY TRAINING FOR PHD STUDENTS

Accademic year 2022/23

Link to Zoom: <https://unipd.zoom.us/j/84819445291>Day 1*From physical to digital library*1.a The services of the Library of Philosophy and the University of Padua Library System*5 DECEMBER 2022 (11-13.15)

We will offer a presentation of the Library of Philosophy, of the services of the University of Padua Library System. We will also do some training on how to use paper and online resources regarding philosophical studies, ranging from catalogues to bibliographic and full-text databases, from electronic journals, search engines and specialised portals.

1.b Doing research: electronic resources for philosophy

Research strategies and exercises on specialised databases: Philosopher's Index, Web of Science, Scopus, Proquest databases.

1.c Zotero, the citation management tool5 DECEMBER 2022 (14.30-16.00)

A session dedicated to Zotero, a free tool to collect, organize, cite, and share sources and to manage bibliographies.

Day 2How to publish: academic publishing, institutional repositories and open science*2.a Scientific communication and Open Science*6 DECEMBER 2022 (11-13.15)

Academic publishing and scientific communication

Open Access

Mandates for open access to scientific publications and research data

Editorial contracts and predatory publishing

Transformative agreements

Academic social networks

University policies for open access

2.b The University institutional archives for research documents and data6 DECEMBER 2022 (14.30-16.30)

Padua Research Archive (IRIS)

Introduction to managing research data

Research Data Unipd

2.b Evaluation of academic research

Quantitative evaluation of research and bibliometric indicators

The evaluation of research in the humanities

Class A journals